The Second Sunday After Pentecost - Corpus Christi

Properly Receiving Holy Communion

On January 30, 2011, the Very Rev. Fr. John Lankeit, rector of Ss. Simon & Jude Cathedral in Phoenix, Arizona wrote to his parishioners, addressing some abuses commonly observed, seeking to correct them. The following seven points are excerpted from his letter:

“Here are 7 common Holy Communion profanations that I see all too frequently:

- Blessing oneself with the Host before consuming it. (The act of blessing with the Eucharist is called “Benediction” and is reserved to clergy alone).
- Receiving the Host in the palm of the hand, contorting that same hand until the host is controlled by the fingers, then consuming it (resembling a one-handed “watch-the-coin-disappear” magic trick).
- Popping the Host into the mouth like a piece of popcorn.
- Attempting to receive with other items in the hands, like a dirty Kleenex or a Rosary.
- Receiving the Host with dirty hands.
- Receiving the Host, closing the hand around it, then letting the hand fall to the side (as if carrying a suitcase) while walking away and/or blessing oneself with the other hand.
- Walking away without consuming the Host.
- Giving the Host to someone else after receiving (including animals)...yes, it happens!”

In addition to Fr. Langeit’s admonitions, I offer some additional direction. When one is presenting him/herself for the Eucharist, the Host should be received on the tongue, especially if one:

- Has an arm in a sling or cast, etc.; is carrying a baby, a hymnal, or any other item(s) that would prevent one from receiving the Most Holy Eucharist with both hands unoccupied or unobstructed and completely empty. (No single-handed or snatching the Host receptions)
- Has bandaged hands/fingers
- Is wearing gloves
- Is an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion who has a pyx in their hand to bring Communion to the sick
- One has unclean hands or things written on their hands (sometimes seen among young people)

Though the official, universal Catholic norm is still for reception of the Most Holy Sacrament on the tongue (Bl. Pope Paul VI was against reception in the hand, fearing a loss of faith in the Real Presence), if Holy Communion is to be received in the hand it should be so done in the following manner: While in line, the communicant reverences (makes a bow) to the Sacrament while the person in front of them is receiving. When the priest, deacon, or extraordinary minister says, “The Body of Christ,” the communicant responds, “Amen,” and puts out their tongue and receives; or puts out their hands as flatly as possible (one hand under the other); the Sacred Host is placed on the flat palm. The communicant then steps aside (so the next person can receive), immediately places the Host on their tongue with the other hand, and returns to their place in the congregation. (Intinction - the dipping of the Host into a chalice of the Precious Blood – is not permitted for the faithful to do by themselves.)

St. Cyril of Jerusalem (315-386) gave instruction for the way the faithful should receive: "They should make a throne of their hands, laying the right upon the left to form a throne for the King, forming at the same time a cross. This symbolic gesture, so fine and so profound, is what concerns him: The hands of man form a cross, which becomes a throne, down into which the King inclines himself. The open, outstretched hand can thus become a sign of the way that a man offers himself to the Lord, opens his hands for him, that they may become an instrument of his presence and a throne of his mercies in this world."

Presenting oneself to receive with hands that are curled, cupped, held down low to the body; held side-by-side and/or with open fingers... make it difficult for the one distributing to therein place the Sacred Body of our Lord. It also increases the danger of the Sacred Host falling to the floor. Please also remember that no communicant should ever "pluck" the Host themselves with one's thumb and forefinger from the fingers of the Priest, Deacon, or extraordinary minister.

One is never required or forced to receive our Lord in the Holy Eucharist; so if one is unsure of whether they should present themselves or not in the Communion procession, it is probably best to err on the side of not receiving. The inside front cover of the missalette / hymnal has a useful guideline issued by the U. S. Bishops for the reception of Communion in the Catholic Church. (And no one should ever be chewing gum in church if they intend to receive Holy Communion.)

Unfortunately, I have experienced numerous abuses in the reception of Holy Communion. Occasionally, parishioners find Hosts in the pews or on the floor!!! Please, please, please be vigilant: should you see someone not consume the Holy Eucharist, immediately alert the priest or deacon; or you may even take the Host back from them yourself and bring it to the priest or deacon. This is a very serious issue.

We cannot be too wary of abuses that can occur, either through ignorance or with evil intentions. Truly, there are practitioners of devil worship and of the occult who seek to obtain the Sacred Body of our Lord for use in so-called "black masses." The main goal of this heinous act is to commit desecration and blasphemy towards God. Let us always remember that the Holy Eucharist is the Real Presence of Jesus Christ; so when we come to receive Him into our souls, may our demeanor, actions, and love be displayed accordingly.

Father's Day: A Blessed and Happy Father's Day to all our St. Paul the Apostle Fathers. Our prayers are with all the fathers of our parish living and deceased. May the good St. Joseph watch over all of them.

From my grandfather I learned good morals and how to govern my temper.

From my father I learned modesty and manly character.

From my mother piety and beneficence...and a simple way of living.

Thus wrote the great Roman Emperor Marcus Aurelius in his book Meditations. In ancient Roman society the elderly were held in the highest veneration. Respect for the elderly is still embedded in every culture, and that is all the more the case when the elderly are our parents. And so should it be with all of us.

When Moses returned from Sinai's height he brought with him the Ten Commandments. These had been given to him by God himself. Of all the Ten Commandments only one has a blessing attached to it – the fourth commandment which is honor thy father and thy mother.

This commandment of God is the sweetest of the commandments because it commands us to do something toward which our nature is ordered. We honor our parents by always doing their will on earth and seeing that they depart this world with Christian burial. We continue to honor them when we have Masses offered for them.

Yes, we owe our parents everything and we will be blessed by God if we fulfill the precepts of the fourth commandment.

A Blessed Fathers' Day.

CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY: Today, Sunday June 18th is Corpus Christi Sunday. After the 11.00AM Mass we will have the Procession with the Blessed Eucharist (outside, weather permitting). All the First Communion Children are invited to come to Mass and be in the procession wearing their Communion outfits. Please make every effort to attend this which will be so pleasing to God.

SAVE THE DATES: It is never too early to begin to save the dates especially in parish life. In addition to the Centerstage dates mentioned in the bulletin, please remember our Parish Picnic which will be on Saturday Evening September 9th. I am grateful that Mrs. Louise Shannon and Mrs. Adriana Milana will be the co-chairs of the picnic this year and I am grateful to Mr. James Black who served as chair in 2013 and Mr. Jesse Cromer who served as chair in 2014 and 2015. Our Gala Casino Night will be at the Milleridge Inn on Thursday October 26th. This is always a fun filled event and a major fund raiser for our parish. Our annual Golf and Tennis Outing and Awards Dinner will be on Monday, May 7, 2018. I am grateful to all our parishioners who make these wondrous events possible.

Join St. Paul's Centerstage Theatre as we present
Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka
August 10, 11, 12 & 13, 2017

There are those who act.
There are those who sing.
There are those who build sets.
There are those who paint sets.
There are those who play instruments.
There are those who sell playbill ads and tickets.
There are those who mend and make costumes

...and then, there are those who just come because they feel at home with us.

Have you ever wondered about that play that St. Paul's stages each summer? Ever thought of becoming more involved in our Parish community? If so, Centerstage may be for you! Centerstage is a family-based ministry. It's where parish families come together, work together, build together, sing and act together and, ultimately, create a show in which each and every one of its cast and crew becomes happily and inextricably linked to one another and the great success of our show.

We're calling all actors (no experience necessary), musicians, set builders and painters together with anyone who would like to join the community that is the Centerstage Ministry this summer. Great things happen when families from St. Paul's gather to present a great show and we'd love for you to share it all with us!

Join us at auditions where we will be collecting sign-up forms and answering questions.

Where? Monsignor Costa Hall
When? Sunday, June 4 at 4:00 p.m., or Thursday, June 8 at 6:00 p.m.

Please contact us at centerstageministry@gmail.com with any questions.

Again, there's no need to audition if you would prefer to be cast in our ensemble or to help behind the scenes!

Oh, and don't worry - we meet on weeknight evenings & late afternoon on Sundays so, you can still keep your jobs and/or go to camp!!!

There is a place for you in Centerstage

Come Spend the Summer With Us!

St. Paul the Apostle Food Pantry

Very often the people who live in “shelter motels” have no family. Some, because of illness, have service animals and some, because of extreme isolation, are allowed emotional support animals. To their owners, these pets are family. Currently we are serving 1 support dog named Jasper.

Our food pantry is (always) in need of the following items

- Cleaning supplies (laundry and dish detergent, Comet, scrub sponges, etc.)
- All paper goods (toilet paper, paper towels)
- Instant coffee (caf and decaf)
- Bottled water
- Canned chicken breast
- Quaker oatmeal (no sugar)
- Shampoo
- Dry pet food (dog)
- Healthy snacks
- Cereal (no sugar)
- Jarred fruit

Everyone who joins a parish adds a little bit of themselves to a greater endeavor. We are richer by your presence here!

You are invited to be active not only in worship but in the many ways a parish serves its members and reaches out to others.

St. Paul's parish community is sustained by each member actively participating in one of our many ministries. We hope that you will become involved in whatever ways you are able and in whatever will bring you joy. when you become involved in a ministry the experience of the parish is more rewarding.

GOT QUESTIONS? Which ministry should I join? I don't have much time! What are the commitments? I really want to get involved.. so how do I do that?

With Your Job Search?

Our volunteers can assist you in updating or creating a resume, by identifying information about job opportunities, and provide tips on interviewing, networking and cover letters.

Contact Gerard Wendelken at (516)364-0640 to arrange an appointment.

GIFTS OF BREAD & WINE

If you would like to present the gifts at the Offertory of Holy Mass (bring up the gifts), please let one of the ushers know. This is very appropriate when one has arranged for the day's Holy Mass or if one is keeping a special day.

MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

Our parish is richly blessed to have a few wonderful volunteers who make up the Ministry of Consolation team.

The most valuable gift we can give are the gifts that come from the heart. The precious gifts of our time, love and compassion are especially needed during the time of the loss of a loved one.

This ministry was created to provide warmth, caring and personal attention to assist families in preparation for the Funeral Mass.

Please give some thought as to sharing your time and talents and being a part of this ministry's call to love and care for one another.

Please call Gina Cinelli at 516-333-5611 if you would like to volunteer or have any questions.
