Pope Francis on Gossip

As many of you know I have tried to use these weekly articles to teach different aspects of our Catholic Faith and Life so we may grow in our knowledge of the faith. The primary purpose of my articles has been to help us to become the saints that God wants us all to be. Surely, you have heard me speak of this most uplifting truth, and you have read about it in the Bulletin. Yes, as our patron St. Paul reminds us, This is God's will for you, that you become saints.

Perhaps it is an idea that has never entered your mind. But God Our Lord sent His Only Begotten Son to die on the Cross for our sins and to open to us the gates of heaven. God wants us to be saints. So beginning this week, I will be writing about different obstacles to our growth in holiness: greed, lust, envy, pride, gluttony, sloth, and anger. These are called the capital sins because all sins are simply variations of them. Today I would like to write on gossip, a grave sin that many dismiss as something light or of no consequence, but, which in reality, is most displeasing to God and harmful to ourselves both in the natural order and supernatural order.

No one likes a gossip even though their words may at first be appealing. Because of our fallen nature, we all like to hear gossip. As probably all of our mothers taught us as children, we should never listen to a gossip, because in all likelihood, the person who gossips about another, will also be gossiping about us behind our back. The great political philosopher Machiavelli alluded to this behavior in his classical Renaissance work, The Prince. There Machiavelli gave the advice to a ruling prince that when traitors betray someone, even if it is to the Prince's immediate advantage, the Prince can be certain that they will also betray him. It is the same with gossip, which permeates our society. Gossip sells books and magazines, drives the ratings of talk shows, and, sadly, has even led young and impressionable individuals to take their own lives, because of things spread about them on the Internet. And sadly, even parishes are not exempt from this grave moral condition. In common folklore, women are often accused of being gossips. St. Josémaría Escrivá wrote in his classic spiritual work, The Way: Who has maligned women by saying they are gossips? Men are far greater than women in this sin.

Gossip is a form of calumny, because it usually exaggerates a person's faults or sins with malice. It is a cowardly and despicable act of discussing the faults of another without necessity, and behind his back. Tale-bearing is a most despicable form of gossip. It consists of repeating to a person unfavorable remarks made about him. The priests are, through God's mercy, shielded from this sin, because, as you know, they may never reveal anything confided to them in confession, even if keeping it secret will result in death for the priest. The great Czech saint St. John Nepomocene was put to death rather than break the seal of confession. The great Alfred Hitchcock film (and Hitchcock's own personal favorite) I Confess is a gripping suspense drama (in the typical Hitchcock style) of how a priest keeps secret what was revealed to him in confession. I recommend the film to all our parishioners who enjoy the twists and turns of an intriguing mystery.

Although Pope Francis is the Pope of Rome he nonetheless teaches in the style of a country pastor. He has particularly spoken and taught about the sin of gossip. Rather than my continuing I'd like to print some teaching of the pope in this matter.

Pope Francis has warned us all to avoid what he calls the terrorism of gossip which poisons the soul. At the Sunday Angelus address of last week the Pope said: Gossip is so rotten. At the beginning, it seems to be something enjoyable and fun, like a piece of candy. But at the end it fills the heart with bitterness and also poisons us. I tell you the truth, I am firmly convinced that if each one of us would purposely avoid gossip, at the end, we would become saints, it is a beautiful path. Jesus offers the example of the Fifth Commandment, "Do not kill," and goes on to add, "but I say to you: Whoever is angry with his brother will be guilty before the court." With this Jesus reminds us that even words can kill. When it is said that someone has the tongue of a serpent what does it mean? That his words kill. Therefore, not only must one not make an attempt on the life of others, but one must not even pour on him the poison of anger and hit him with slander, nor speak ill of him. And here we arrive at gossip. Gossip can also kill, because it kills the reputation of the other person. Thus speaks our Holy Father.

If somehow we imagine we have been hurt by another person, we should immediately believe that it was a misunderstanding and not deliberate. Very rarely do people wake up with the intention to do us harm that day. But our imagination takes over and we believe that we are the object of others' deliberate hatred for us. And once the imagination takes control of us it leads us in the direction of the devil.

Going around gossiping is always inhuman; it reveals a person of mediocre quality. It is a sign of being uneducated; it shows a lack of refinement of feeling; it is unworthy of a Christian.

Yes, sadly I have seen the poisonous nature of gossip too frequently which can destroy so much good. We may find it hard to believe, but even the priests are the object of gossip. This is totally understandable in the natural order, because, while there may be over a thousand parishioners, there is only one priest, and therefore he makes a very attractive and easy target. May I share an amusing observation that was once printed in a magazine for priests and has brought many a chuckle? See if it sounds familiar. I quote the magazine:

WHAT THE CRITICS SAY

Here is a summary of remarks made about pastors of a typical Catholic parish:

If his homily is long: "He puts us to sleep."

If it is short: "He's unprepared."

If he raises his voice: "He's shouting."

If he speaks normally: "We can't hear him."

If he's away: "He's always on vacation."

If he stays home: "He doesn't have a life."

If he's out visiting: "He's never home."

If he's in the rectory: "He never visits his parish."

If he mentions finances: "He's always talking about money."

If he doesn't: "Our parish never does anything."

If he's young: "He has no experience."

If he's older: "When will he retire?"

And, of course, if he dies: "No one can ever replace him!"

PARISH GALA DINNER/DANCE AND CASINO NIGHT: Please save the date of Friday October 28th. That will be our annual Parish Gala Dinner/Dance and Casino Night. Once again we will have the casino night provided by the M&M Twins (my good friends, Marco and Michael Posillico). This proved to be so enjoyable last year and was a great success. May I ask and invite all parishioners to attend this wonderful evening at the newly refurbished Cottage of the Milleridge Inn. Mr. Butch Yamali, the new owner of the Milleridge Inn, recently invited me to go there to bless this new endeavor. I was accompanied by the Chair of the Gala Mrs. Paula Maturo and by committee member Mrs. Anne Maione. I entered every room of the Inn to bless it and sprinkle the Holy Water in all the shops, and the cottage and carriage house. It is remarkable how this historic inn is being restored to its original splendor. Mr. Yamali is a good friend to us at St. Paul's and I would encourage everyone to come that night and to see the refurbished Inn. It is our major fundraiser through the course of the year. You may have noticed that this year I have completed 35 years as a priest. I am very honored that on that evening we will also celebrate these years of priesthood. We do not honor the priest individually, for every priest's prayer is that of St. John the Baptist, he must increase, but I must decrease. But rather we give thanks to God for the gift of the priesthood which is love at the heart of the Church. I am most grateful to Mrs. Paula Maturo and her committee for all they have done for the success of this wonderful evening.

MASS OF THANKSGIVING ON OCTOBER 23RD: On Sunday October 23, 2016, at 11.00AM there will be a Mass of Thanksgiving for the 35 Years of the Holy Priesthood that God has given to our pastor Monsignor Pereda. There will be a reception for all parishioners, friends, and family after the Mass with a special treat for the children. This is the Sunday before our Parish Gala Dinner/Dance and Casino Night which is on Friday October 28th. (Please see the announcement elsewhere in the bulletin). Everyone is most cordially invited. This is not an occasion for the giving of gifts which should only go toward our Parish Gala.

LOOK TO MARY: Look to the star of the sea, call upon Mary...in danger, in distress, in doubt, think of Mary, call upon Mary. May her name never be far from your lips, or far from your heart...If you follow her, you will not stray; if you pray to her, you will not despair; if you turn your thoughts to her, you will not err. If she holds you, you will not fall; if she protects you, you need not fear; if she is your guide, you will not tire; if she is gracious to you, you will surely reach your destination. – St. Bernard of Clairvaux

Monsignor James F. Pereda

ST. PAUL THE APOSTLE FOOD PANTRY

Our food pantry has had an increase in visitors! Not only do we serve residents of our own community and families in area shelters, we are now serving veterans and their families from Nassau and Suffolk Counties.

We are thrilled that they have reached out to us and they are grateful that we can help in their time of need.

We realize that during the summer months, when so many parishioners are on vacation, donations decrease.

Because of this our pantry shelves are emptying fast.

We are in great need of the following:

- Canned tuna
- Shelf stable milk
- Cleaning supplies
- All paper goods (toilet paper, paper towels, microwaveable bowls, napkins)
- Canned meals (Chef Boyardee, etc.)
- Microwaveable meals
- Jarred/canned spaghetti sauce
- Pasta (all kinds)
- NO SUGAR cereal
- Decaf instant coffee (motels do not have coffee makers) and Regular canned coffee
- Bottled water
- Juice
- Personal Items: toothpaste, adult tooth brushes, deodorant, shampoo.

We are also in need of gift cards for Kolh's and Target.

If you wish to donate these items, please drop them off at the parish rectory office or contact us at paulsapostle@verizon.net

THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR GENEROSITY AND KINDNESS!

If you know of a veteran or anyone in need, please contact us.

Your donations sustain lives and maintain dignity, thank you!

FROM ST. PAUL'S PANTRY

Our food pantry gets many visitors, all with tenuous financial situations. Even beyond their finances, their lives in general are...tenuous.

Our volunteers hear too many times, "I feel like I'm in a nightmare." "I don't know what to do next." "I'm so tired, how do I keep fighting?"

We recently met a couple who had worked so hard to educate themselves and find careers that any parent would wish for their child.

Careers with salaries that buy huge homes, luxury cars and spectacular vacations.

These same two people now live in a motel subsidized by Nassau County. Why? They woke up one morning and it was all gone...everything they had planned on, dreamed about and worked so hard for...gone!

Snap your fingers, go ahead. The sound of that snap is how fast it all happened. And from that colossal loss came health issues... And from that, being on an organ donation wait list... And from that, unbearable sadness and fear.

Their faith does not give them an option to bring their broken pieces and lay them at the foot of the cross. They came to St. Paul's because our pantry has a reputation for being kind and generous.

So what happens to people like them? We don't know. In the meantime, the food you donate to the pantry helps to feed them. The vegetables we grow at our St. Paul's "farm" gives them healthy options.

The volunteers give them small comforts, we listen while they talk, we hug them and cry with them.

We let Christ work through us. We let Christ's love pour out onto them and hope it makes a difference however small.

Then we thank Christ for the opportunity to love. Life is so fragile.

Our pantry is in critical need of all food

due to an increase in visitors and our veteran community.

THANK YOU!
