From the Pastor July 28, 2019 Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Seventh Sunday After Pentecost

Dear Parishioners of our Beloved St. Paul:

Praised be Jesus Christ and His Most Holy Mother! The Apostles' Creed has twelve articles of faith. From the most ancient times it has been the tradition of the Catholic Church that each one of the Twelve Apostles contributed one of the twelve articles of faith. During the Church's Liturgical Year of Grace we celebrate the Feasts of each of the Apostles. Generally speaking, in every month we keep the Feast of one of the twelve Apostles. Their Feats are usually kept toward the latter part of each month.

Thus, in June (June 29th) we kept our own patronal Feast, the Solemnity of the Holy Apostles Saints Peter and Paul. Next month (August 24th) we will keep the Feast of St. Bartholomew, in September (the 21st) we will keep St. Matthew, in October (the 28th) we will keep Saints Simon and Jude, and then in November (the 30th) we will keep the Feast of St. Andrew, the First-Called of the Twelve. Since the end of November is the beginning of the Liturgical Year which starts on the First Sunday in Advent, we keep the Feast of the First-Called Apostle St. Andrew at the very beginning of the Liturgical Year. And each month we keep the Feast of an Apostle. But for this week's mediation I would like to think of St. James, whose Feast is kept each year on July 25th just last week.

Like his brother St. John the Apostle and author of the fourth Gospel, St. James was a fisherman. Their father was Zebedee and their mother was Salome who was one of the holy women who stood with Our Blessed Mother at the foot of the Cross.

After Our Lord's Ascension into Heaven, St. James preached the Gospel at what was then considered the very end of the earth, the Finis Terrae, Spain. St. James labored arduously and yet was unable to make even one convert in the vast Iberian Peninsula. One day he was so discouraged that he sat at the bank of the River Ebro weeping copiously. Suddenly he heard the sound of beautiful signing and saw a bright light. Our Lady appeared to him standing on top of a pillar. She is the Joy of All that Sorrow, the Consolation of the Afflicted, and the Comfort of those who mourn. Just her appearance gave him the courage to continue his great work of the evangelization of the Spanish people. Today on that very spot where Our Lady appeared in the city of Zaragoza, there is a great Shrine of Our Lady of the Pillar. Many Spanish women bear the name Maria Pilar in her honor. The Blessed William Joseph Chaminade, the founder of the Marianist Congregation who are so much a part of our parish family, received his inspiration to found the Marianist Congregation while praying at that very shrine.

After his great work of evangelization in Spain, St. James returned to Jerusalem and there became the first of the Apostles to be martyred.

But the Spanish people would not be deprived of the presence of their beloved missionary. The body of St. James was brought from Jerusalem to Spain in the fourth century. However, in the seventh century the Moslems crossed the Straits of Gibraltar and conquered Spain, putting many Christians to death and enslaving many others. The body of the Apostle was hidden so that it would not be descrated.

Many had forgotten where the body had been hidden but in the tenth century a great miracle occurred. Above a field in the extreme northwest of Spain (the province of Galicia) the stars began to shine brilliantly leading the faithful to discover the body of their beloved father and teacher St. James. This Field of Stars (in Latin Campus Stellarum) is today the great City of Compostella. There so many Christians throughout the centuries have come to pray before the tomb of that Apostle who witnessed the glory of the transfiguration and witnessed the bloody sweat of Our Lord in the Agony in the Garden. Many people even to our own day walk the Way of St. James or El Camino de Santiago. It is on that journey that many promises have been made to God and where many graces have been given. Father Brandon O'Brien, a good friend to St. Paul's, is making the camino this summer and assures us that he will be praying for us. Let us pray that St. James will ever lead us along the way of salvation and protect us from all dangers of body and soul. Let us make the following prayer our own:

"We have walked out of our lives

To come to where the walls of heaven

Are thin as a curtain, transparent as glass,

Where the Apostle spoke the Holy Words

Where in death he returned, where God is close

Where saints and martyrs mark the road...

Holy Saint James, great St. James,

God help us now and evermore"

Our Lady's Lent: In many places of the Church it is the custom and tradition to keep a fast beginning on August 1st until August 15th. It is given the charming name of Our Lady's Lent. It is a fast in honor of Our Lady as we celebrate her principal feast of the year on August 15th, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. I would encourage our parishioners to follow this ancient spiritual practice.

St. Philip Neri: To begin and end well, devotion to Our Blessed Lady, the Mother of God, is nothing less than indispensable.

St. Josémaria Escrivá: Do not make excuses by saying that is my character. It is really your lack of character. Be brave and be a saint!

Pope Benedict XVI: Look at the face of the other ... Discover that he has a soul, a history and a life, that he is a person and that God loves this person ...

May God bless you and Mary keep you,

Monsignor James F. Pereda

Mass in Monsignor Costa Hall beginning July 20-21 Final Phase of our Church Renovation

We have now come to the final phase of construction in the Church which will be the enlarging of the narthex, the completion of the Fatima Chapel, the new lighting, and the mounting of the mysteries of the Rosary.

Because of this, we will once again move our Sunday Masses to Monsignor Costa Hall beginning the weekend of July 20-21. We will be there four weekends. We have done this before during Lent, and now we offer this small inconvenience to God again.

After this final phase, all will be ready.

INDOOR GARAGE SALE

Hosted by St. Ignatius Loyola East Nicholai Street, Hicksville The weekends of July 20-21 & July 27-28 10am to 4pm School Building is handicap accessible.

If a Parishioner of St. Paul's or a family member living with you is unable to attend Mass temporarily or permanently because of recuperation, illness, disability or age, PLEASE do not hesitate to contact the Parish Office at 516-935-1880. We will make arrangements to have Holy Communion brought to that individual weekly.
