THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

THE EASTER DUTY

Praised be Jesus Christ and His Most Holy Mother!

Have you ever heard of something called the “Easter Duty”? If you have, there is a good chance that you thought it meant that all Catholics “must” go to confession at least once a year, specifically during the Easter season. We do not talk much about it now, and so we should ask whether or not this a law that was and/or remains in effect. I will get to that, but first a tiny bit of history.

For much of our history, the frequent reception of the Eucharist was not something everybody did. There was a keen awareness that one should not receive the Body and Blood of Christ unworthily¹. Since there was, and still is, no obligation to receive the Eucharist at every Mass (one’s obligation to attend Mass is satisfied simply by being there), many people did not in fact receive the Eucharist very often. Some did so out of an arguably over-abundance of piety, and others just figured they’d put off confession as long as they could - years even - and would simply do without.

Well, the Church eventually said that since the Eucharist is so integral to the Christian life, a Catholic must receive the Eucharist at least once a year, ideally at Easter², and it is this command that was and still is the “Easter Duty.” Naturally, since everyone racks up at least some sins throughout the year, it naturally followed that going to confession would normally precede that, hence the confusion that the Easter Duty concerned going to confession.

In fact according to canon law, a person is only strictly required to go to confession for mortal sins³, although it is highly recommended to go to tidy up all those other smaller or venial sins as well. The reason it is highly recommended is that few other things, except for the reception of Christ’s Body and Blood, fill us with such profound grace as the sacrament of confession. Hearing confessions is truly one of the most humbling and awesome things I do as a priest.

Alas, many do not make use of the sacrament. Maybe people don’t commit serious sins anymore (highly dubious). Maybe it is because people don’t realize some of the things they do are serious (closer, I think). Or maybe some just have not been in such a long time, that they are nervous about the process and/or think they have nothing to say (more likely still).

If that is the case, fear not! What follows is what is called the 90% confession. It contains 90% of the things that 90% of people can confess 90% of the time. A typical confession need not be any more complicated than what follows. In fact, most things that are often added to a confession, like a list of your virtues (good to know, but not what we are there to discuss), lists of struggles in your life (while worth talking about to a priest, the confessional is generally not the place for that either), lists of other people’s sins against you (this comes up often, but the focus should stay on you), and lengthy explanations or details tend only to distract from the business at hand. The fewer details the better. If the priest has any questions, he will ask.

So, without further ado, here is a sample confession that you can use to guide your own confession (bring it with you if that helps). Recite the sins applicable to you, and of course mention any other serious sins not on the list (I presume you already know what those might be).

¹Cor 11:27 - Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy way will be guilty of sin against the body and blood of the Lord.

²Can. 920 §1. After being initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, each of the faithful is obliged to receive Holy Communion at least once a year. §2. This precept must be fulfilled during the Easter season unless it is fulfilled for a just cause at another time during the year.

³In short, “mortal” sins are those that are of serious matter (sexual relations outside of marriage, murder, abortion, missing Mass, viewing pornography, etc.) and freely (not coerced) committed by someone who knows at the time that they are indeed serious.

You begin simply by saying, “Bless me Father for I have sinned. It’s been (state how long) since my last confession. Here are my sins...

I have not loved God with all my heart, and all my soul.

I have placed people or things in my life as taking priority over God.

I have been disrespectful to my parents or legitimate authorities.

I have used the name of God carelessly.

I have brought scandal upon God or the Church through my bad example as a Christian.

I have missed Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation.

I have been prideful.

I have not been kind to everyone in my life.

I have been impatient with people in my life.

I have let anger get the best of me.

I have judged others.

I have dwelled on impure thoughts.

I have been impure with myself or with another person.

I have artificially frustrated God's desire to create life.

I have dwelled on impure images that objectify men or women.

I have overindulged in food or drink.

I have abused drugs.

I have told lies.

I have been envious of what others have.

I have not been thankful for all the gifts I have been given.

I am sorry for these, and all my other sins that I have failed to remember.”

The priest may say a few words of counsel, give you a simple penance to say later, and ask you to make an act of contrition. There are many forms, but the short and simple one is: “Lord Jesus, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.”

At this point the priest says the prayer of absolution: “God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit.”

You answer “amen” and the priest dismisses you.

That’s it! All done. Clean as a whistle, and all in a few minutes. Interestingly the two greatest saint confessors in the history of the Church, St. John Vianney, the Cure of Ars, and Padre Pio, never gave more than 90 seconds to each penitent. Usually more time than that is superfluous and is often the fruit of the imagination of the heart. Believe me, a priest who has heard confessions for 41 years, in confession the more concise we are, the more contrite we are.

So if you haven’t been to confession in a while, I sincerely hope you will decide to break that streak at some point before Easter. There are scant few things in life that I can guarantee, but I can guarantee you will not regret going to confession and receiving the Lord’s mercy and forgiveness.

So, what do you have to lose other than your sins? I’ll see you there! ⁴

⁴ The normal mode is for the priest and the penitent to be separated by a screen, so the priest really won’t be seeing you. In fact, even in the absence of a screen, the priest will try to avoid that. Trust me, he doesn’t want to know! The screen is required by Canon Law and has been a great safety net throughout the centuries. Here at St. Paul, we may either sit or kneel. But the screen is always there.

The confessionals have a grate or screen or grill on each side. The word in Latin for the screen is grata, which also means a protection. For those who know why a protection is needed, there need be no explanation. For those who do not know why a protection is needed, I pray you will never know.

LENTEN REMINDERS

Our annual Bread and Soup Supper will on Friday April 8th at 5.30PM in the Lower Hall. This simple Lenten supper will be followed by the Stations of the Cross. We ask all families to come to this penitential, but nonetheless joyful evening with other parishioners. Our Squires will prepare and serve the meal. We ask that what a family would save on their supper that evening be given to outreach to feed the hungry in our own community.

During Lent we have the Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament on each Friday at 7.00pm. Please make every effort to walk with Our Lord as he carried the Cross.

Please make a Holy Lent and try to instill into your children the importance of doing penance. How pleased is Our Lord when the little ones give up candy or cookies for love of Him.

*A Blessed Lent!

Pantry Update

One of the families we serve consists of a mother, her two young sons and their grandmother. The mother left an intolerable situation and she is trying to make a good life for herself and family. She is struggling, but she sees light at the end of the tunnel. She recently reached out to us to tell us that her brother, his wife and 7-year old son have just come to live with her in their tiny apartment. Her brother was able to leave the recent nightmare in his country...just in time. There are agencies that will help them settle. In the meantime, we will help as much as we can.

We could use food cards, Kohl's cards, Target cards and whatever else you can generously think of.

Our pantry shelves need the following:

- Jarred Pasta Sauce (but no pasta, please)
- Rice (not instant)
- Beans (black, red, garbanzo)
- Shampoo/Conditioner
- Laundry Detergent
- Toothpaste
- Toilet paper

If you or someone you know needs help, please email paulsapostle@verizon.net or call/text 516 330-5106

"Non nobis solum, nati sumus"
Not for ourselves alone are we born

May I extend sincere gratitude to all our parishioners who made the Christmas 2021 Collection such an outstanding one. (It takes time to prepare the numbers for the Christmas Collection because parishioners' contributions come in during a two-month period). One can see the effect of the Covid-19 shutdown on our parish income. Such has been the case in your households as well, no doubt. Remember St. Paul's has three sources of income: our weekly collections, our major fundraisers each year, and the offerings of the faithful at the time of the administration of the sacraments and burials, as well as donations throughout the year. Your generosity allows St. Paul to continue to be a light to all in our community and a place where we encounter God and the Saints.
