The Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 19, 2019

THE VICTORY OF EASTER

Our Lord Jesus Christ embraced His Passion and Cross so as to defeat the pride of the devil, the ancient enemy of our race. Today we will consider pride.

The Third Mass Preface of Lent expresses to the Father the spirit we are to have as we “climb the holy mountain” towards Easter:

You ask us to express our thanks by self-denial.

We are to master our sinfulness and conquer our pride.

We are to show to those in need your goodness to ourselves.

The very real presence of the Devil and the seven deadly sins (pride, envy, anger, sloth, avarice, gluttony, and lust) active in our world, are something to examine especially at this time of year. We should seek to eradicate them from our lives and let the goodness of almighty God shine forth. I hope to present all seven over the next few weeks; and likely into the Easter Season. I have taken great encouragement for this exposition from Bishop Robert Barron’s CD “Seven Deadly Sins / Seven Lively Virtues”, currently available in the Lighthouse Catholic Media display. If any of this echoes his presentation, I give him the credit!

Pride is the root of all sin which paves the road for all the others. It is the sin of Adam and Eve; the Original Sin. As we heard in the reading from Genesis on the First Sunday of Lent, at the prompting of the serpent, our first parents bought into the lie that they could be something greater than they were. They were lured into believing that they could be like God; even possibly being “competition” for Him. It was and always is a disordered desire to excel; a self-centered desire and not one of wanting to share in God’s power to be only good and do only good, but to have selfish advantage or power and control over others, which is evil.

Psychology tells us that whether one feels either inferior or superior to others, both are inferiority complexes. The former makes itself obvious, while in the latter, arrogance masks deep-down fears of inadequacy. To look at ourselves as somehow superior to others can be a very real temptation. When we are prideful, we want to be the center of our own destiny, rather than let God be the One who is Lord of all things, and seeing all others in His light.

“When man isolates self from God and the rest of humanity and makes self absolute or central, either ignoring all others or using them solely towards the achievement of his own private ends, he has the vice of pride... At the root of all such sins there is an exaggerated love and concern for self that clouds one’s knowledge and appreciation of the true self and the corresponding worth of others.” (Catholic Encyclopedia)

To one degree or another, this sin exists in all of us; and typically in very subtle ways. Some examples of pride can even parade themselves as virtues. i.e.: when one is given a (well deserved) compliment, and in response puts him/herself down (false humility), rather than graciously say, “Thank-you,” while explicitly or implicitly giving God the credit and glory for the gifts required to achieve whatever was accomplished.

“Scrupulous” individuals suffer from a variety of pride that does not allow God to be all merciful: in essence saying, “God is not powerful enough to forgive me or cover for my inadequacies and failings.” The scrupulous says his unworthiness is larger than God. No matter how we think or feel, God is much greater than even the worst sin we can commit.

“Presumptuous” individuals exhibit the opposite attitude: acting as if that no matter what I do, God is going to forgive me. That everything I do (no matter how intrinsically evil) is justifiable and OK. The presumptuous person, in essence, “tells” God how to be God; can flaunt the laws of God and the Church, and legitimate authority. This is often manifested in what can be called the “...but I’m a good person...” syndrome; “God has to forgive me because I am wonderful.” An egotistical attitude like that can be detrimental to one’s eternal salvation.

Some other everyday examples of the sin of pride: self-absorption and vanity; easily taking offense; reaction to criticism and over-sensitivity; the craving for attention, adulation, and praise; having to have it “my way”; not taking legitimate praise (for the gifts that come from God working in you); not admitting mistakes; always talking about yourself/your children/grandchildren/your interests... and not really listening to others; being judgmental... the list goes on. We each have our particular “brands” of pride.

Yet, we have the capability to become something greater than we are only through the humble, obedient love of our Lord Jesus. Mary said to the angel, “Let it be done unto me according to thy Word.” May our attitude be the same through her prayers, so that we too may make God #1 and share His Life in heaven.

In Jesus and Mary

Monsignor James F. Pereda

FRIDAY FRIENDS

“Friday Friends” is coming to St. Paul’s-JOIN US!

“Friday Friends” is a monthly event where children with special needs can bond with teen volunteers in the community on a one-to-one basis. Parents of children with special needs drop off all their children (including siblings) and enjoy a break from their intensive caring routine. Adult supervision is part of the program.

The “Friday Friends” program has been in existence for approximately three years in two local Parishes; St. Dominic’s, Oyster Bay and St. Edward the Confessor, Syosset. We are now establishing the program in the Jericho/Brookville area here at St. Paul the Apostle. As the “Friday Friends” program has 135 regular participants in the two existing locations, St. Paul’s participation will allow the program to expand to help support the community and our special-needs parents. We anticipate about 30 participants each session.

We will host this event once per month during the school year (September-June) on the 2nd Friday of each month from 6:00PM to 8:00PM in Msgr. Costa Hall. (Holidays may affect the schedule). There are many fun activities planned including arts & crafts, games, music, playground activities, a pizza and water snack and more to ensure a good time for each child who is with us at “Friday Friends”.

We seek teens and adults with a kind heart. If you are interested in volunteering for “Friday Friends”, please email: Nikolas Tarasenko at fridayfriendsstpaul@gmail.com

FRIDAY FRIENDS

- WHEN: Once a Month on Friday from 6:00 - 8:00 PM
Every 2nd Friday of the Month
The schedule may vary slightly as a result of holidays
The First "Friday Friends" Event will be held May 10th
- WHERE: Church of St. Paul the Apostle
2534 Cedar Swamp Road
Brookville, NY 11545
- WHAT "Friday Friends" is a monthly event where children with special needs can bond with teen volunteers in the community on a one-to-one basis. Parents of children with special needs can drop off all their children (including siblings) and enjoy a break from their intensive caring routine.
- COST: There is no cost to participate. We will provide pizza and water to all the kids.

We have assembled a group of compassionate high school students and adult volunteers. "Friday Friends" has worked so well at other parishes in the area on so many different levels.

For our special-needs parents: It is a rare night of relaxation.

For our special needs kids: It is a social activity that they really look forward to.

For our teen volunteers: This has helped our volunteers develop a sense of compassion and empathy that they might not have otherwise experienced.

As background, the "Friday Friends" program has been in existence for approximately three years in two local Syosset Churches - St. Dominic Catholic Church and St. Edward the Confessor Church. We are now opening this up in the Jericho/Brookville area at the Church of St. Paul the Apostle. As the "Friday Friends" program has ~135 regular participants in the two existing locations, this will allow this successful program to expand to help support the community and our special-needs parents as we now open this up in the Jericho/Brookville area at the Church of St. Paul the Apostle.

We will host this event once per month during the school year (September-June). We have many fun activities planned including arts & crafts, games, music, kickball, basketball, playground activities and more to ensure a good time for your child who is with us at "Friday Friends".

We hope that your child will join us! We recognize it takes a village to raise a child, and the same is even truer when a child has special needs which is why we look forward to offering this opportunity to join the Friday Friends family.

If you are interested in participating in "Friday Friends", please email Nikolas Tarasenko at fridayfriendsstpaul@gmail.com so we can sign up your child.

Sincerely,
Niko Tarasenko (fridayfriendsstpaul@gmail.com)

Marian Guild & Knights of Columbus
Annual Communion Breakfast
Sunday, May 19th

Please save the date of Sunday, May 19th when the Marian Guild and Knights of Columbus will sponsor and host our annual Communion Breakfast.

We remember with affection the many times that the late Monsignor McDonald came to speak to us. He would never take anything from the Knights or Marian Guild but would say put it toward the renovation of the Church.

This year we will have a very special guest, Father Leo Song. Father Leo was ordained a priest just last June after four years of study in Rome. He is the parochial vicar at St. Rose of Lima in Massapequa. Father Leo is very special to us because he made his First Holy Communion at St. Paul's and came to Mass here as a child. He looks forward to celebrating the 9.30 Mass on that day and giving the talk at the Communion Breakfast. His parents will be with him as well as the catechist who prepared him for his first confession and First Holy Communion.
