October 31, 2021

The Thirty First Sunday in Ordinary Time

VISIT OF BISHOP MURPHY: Today it is our great joy to welcome to St. Paul Bishop William F. Murphy. Bishop Murphy is the Bishop Emeritus of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, having served as Bishop from 2001 until 2017. Bishop Murphy has been a true father to me. It was he who appointed me Judicial Vicar in 2007 and he who asked Pope Benedict XVI to appoint me a Monsignor fifteen years ago. I will never forget that since the Bishop made every effort to see that the Holy Father did this before my mother's death. Both she and my sister and family were so happy because of this kindness. It was while he was Bishop that the renovation of the Church began. The Bishop had been scheduled to visit St. Paul's on Sunday August 22nd, but due to Tropical Storm Henri, the visit was rescheduled. Bishop Murphy will come to St. Paul today Sunday September 26th. He will celebrate the 10.30 Mass. And will solemnly enshrine a First-Class Relic (from the very bones) of St. Paul the Apostle in the High Altar. It had always been my fond hope to obtain this relic, but I was never able to do so. Finally, when I thought it was impossible through God's providence (there are no coincidences) one of our own parish families came forward to gift the relic of St. Paul to the parish. We will be ever grateful to Jacques, Elisabeth, and Elise Le Vaillant. And long after we are all forgotten, it will always be remembered that the relic of the Holy Apostle St. Paul is in our altar.

PURGATORY; As every Catholic is aware, the month of November is the month of the Holy Souls when we pray for the faithful departed and our loved ones who have been called home to God. In fact, the Church grants a plenary indulgence to the faithful who visit a cemetery during the first week of November and there pray for the Holy Souls. That is why for today's column I would like to write on Purgatory.

Every November 1st we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. Because the Solemnity falls on a Monday, the obligation to attend Mass is dispensed; however, many will no doubt wish to attend Mass on this day. On Monday, November 1st the Mass will be at 9.00AM.

Purgatory (Latin, "purgare", to make clean, to purify) in accordance with Catholic teaching is a place or condition of temporal punishment for those who, departing this life in God's grace, are, not entirely free from venial faults, or have not fully paid the satisfaction due to their transgressions.

The faith of the Church concerning purgatory is clearly expressed in the Decree of Union drawn up by the Council of Florence, and in the decree of the Council of Trent which defined: "Whereas the Catholic Church, instructed by the Holy Spirit, has from the Sacred Scriptures and the ancient tradition of the Fathers taught in Councils and very recently in this Ecumenical synod that there is a purgatory, and that the souls therein are helped by the suffrages of the faithful, but principally by the acceptable Sacrifice of the Altar; the Holy Synod enjoins on the Bishops that they diligently endeavor to have the sound doctrine of the Fathers in Councils regarding purgatory everywhere taught and preached, held and believed by the faithful." Further than this the definitions of the Church do not go, but the tradition of the Fathers and scholars must be consulted to explain the teachings of the councils, and to make clear the belief and the practices of the faithful.

That temporal punishment is due to sin, even after the sin itself has been pardoned by God, is clearly the teaching of Scripture. God indeed brought man out of his first disobedience and gave him power to govern all things (Wisdom 10:2), but still condemned him "to eat his bread in the sweat of his brow" until he returned unto dust. God forgave the incredulity of Moses and Aaron, but in punishment kept them from the "land of promise" (Numbers 20:12). The Lord took away the sin of David, but the life of the child was forfeited because David had made God's enemies blaspheme His Holy Name (2 Samuel 12:13-14). In the New Testament as well as in the Old, almsgiving and fasting, and in general penitential acts are the real fruits of repentance (Matthew 3:8; Luke 17:3; 3:3). The whole penitential system of the Church testifies that the voluntary assumption of penitential works has always been part of true repentance and the Council of Trent (Sess. XIV, can. xi) reminds the faithful that God does not always remit the whole punishment due to sin together with the guilt. God requires satisfaction, and will punish sin, and this doctrine involves as its necessary consequence a belief that the sinner failing to do penance in this life may be punished in another world, and so not be cast off eternally from God.

All sins are not equal before God, nor dare anyone assert that the daily faults of human frailty will be punished with the same severity that is meted out to serious violation of God's law. On the other hand whosoever comes into God's presence must be perfectly pure for in the strictest sense His "eyes are too pure, to behold evil" (Habakkuk 1:13). For un-repentant venial faults for the payment of temporal punishment due to sin at time of death, the Church has always taught the doctrine of purgatory. So deep was this belief ingrained in our common humanity that it was accepted by the Jews, and in at least a shadowy way by the pagans, long before the coming of Christianity.

In Origen the doctrine of purgatory is very clear. If a man departs this life with lighter faults, he is condemned to fire which burns away the lighter materials, and prepares the soul for the kingdom of God, where nothing defiled may enter. "For if on the foundation of Christ you have built not only gold and silver and precious stones (1 Corinthians 3); but also wood and hay and stubble, what do you expect when the soul shall be separated from the body? Would you enter into heaven with your wood and hay and stubble and thus defile the kingdom of God; or on account of these hindrances would you remain without and receive no reward for your gold and silver and precious stones? Neither is this just. It remains then that you be committed to the fire which will burn the light materials; for our God to those who can comprehend heavenly things is called a cleansing fire. But this fire consumes not the creature, but what the creature has himself built, wood and hay and stubble. It is manifest that the fire destroys the wood of our transgressions and then returns to us the reward of our great works." (P.G., XIII, col. 445, 448).

St. Augustine describes two conditions of men; "some there are who have departed this life, not so bad as to be deemed unworthy of mercy, nor so good as to be entitled to immediate happiness" etc., and in the resurrection he says there will be some who "have gone through these pains, to which the spirits of the dead are liable" (City of God XXI.24). Thus, at the close of the fourth century:

- not only were prayers for the dead found in all the Liturgies, but the Fathers asserted that such practice was from the Apostles themselves;
- those who were helped by the prayers of the faithful and by the celebration of the Holy Mysteries (Holy Mass) were in a place of purgation;
- from which when purified they "were admitted unto the Holy Mount of the Lord".

It is the traditional faith of Catholics that the souls in purgatory are not separated from the Church, and that the love which is the bond of union between the Church's members should embrace those who have departed this life in God's grace. Hence, since our prayers and our sacrifices can help those who are still waiting in purgatory, the saints have not hesitated to warn us that we have a real duty toward those who are still in purgatorial expiation. Holy Church through the Congregation of Indulgences, 18 December 1885, has bestowed a special blessing on the so-called "heroic act" in virtue of which "a member of the Church militant offers to God for the souls in purgatory all the satisfactory works which he will perform during his lifetime, and also all the suffrages which may accrue to him after his death" (Heroic Act, vol. VII, 292). The practice of devotion to the dead is also consoling to humanity and eminently worthy of a religion which seconds all the purest feelings of the human heart. "Sweet", says Cardinal Wiseman (lecture XI), "is the consolation of the dying man, who, conscious of imperfection, believes that there are others to make intercession for him, when his own time for merit has expired; soothing to the afflicted survivors the thought that they possess powerful means of relieving their friend. In the first moments of grief, this sentiment will often overpower religious prejudice, cast down the unbeliever on his knees beside the remains of his friend and snatch from him an unconscious prayer for rest; it is an impulse of nature which for the moment, aided by the analogies of revealed truth, seizes at once upon this consoling belief. But it is only a flitting and melancholy light, while the Catholic feeling, cheering though with solemn dimness, resembles the unfailing lamp, which the piety of the ancients is said to have hung before."

During this month be sure to pray for the souls of our loved ones in purgatory and be sure to have masses offered for them.

In Jesus and Mary,
Monsignor James F. Pereda

The Year of St. Joseph 2021

Presentation and Consecration

As we approach the end of the Year of St. Joseph as declared by Pope Francis, a special presentation will be part of our monthly Holy Hour on Friday, November 5th beginning at 7:00PM.

Deacon Ray will give a talk on the life of St. Joseph.

Our hope is to encourage as many as possible to begin the Consecration to St. Joseph by Fr. Donald Calloway MIC; what so many have described as a “life changing” experience and understanding of St. Joseph as a husband to the Blessed Mother and the earthly father of Jesus. St. Joseph is the patron saint of the Universal Church, families, fathers, expectant mothers, travelers, immigrants, house sellers and buyers, craftsmen, engineers and working people, among others.

The book is available for purchase at major online retailers, at EWTN and various bookstores. The cost is approximately $14.00 for the print edition.

All are invited to begin the special 33-day Consecration on Monday November 8th. Consecration Day will be on the Feast of Our Lady of Loreto, Dec. 10th.

Join us for one hour:

Friday Nov. 6th at 7:00pm in the Church for Deacon Ray's presentation followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, the Litany to St. Joseph and Benediction.
